

Cristina Accardi Mirda is a well regarded, experienced and successful attorney. Cristina graduated from Seton Hall University School of Law, and is currently a partner at the law firm of Accardi & Mirda, P.C. For the past twenty-three years, Cristina has been engaged in the general practice of law with a primary emphasis on trial work in civil litigation in the field of insurance defense. Cristina has also devoted a significant portion of her practice in the area of matrimonial/family law, as well as engaging in substantial estate and surrogate work.

Cristina is certified as a Civil Trial Attorney by the Supreme Court of New Jersey, as well as a Qualified Mediator as per R. 1:40. Over the past twenty years, she has tried multiple cases to verdict. She is also on the Court approved list to act as Mediator in Probate and Estate cases out of the Superior Court in Morris County. She has participated in multiple mediations over the last twenty years to resolve cases with substantial exposure to which she was either defending or prosecuting. She is also on the approved counsel list for surrogate matters and has handled surrogate appointments on a regular basis for the last approximate ten years.

Cristina is also often called upon by insurance companies to prepare and present educational seminars/lectures on various topics in the context of insurance defense/civil litigation.

Cristina represents her clients with professionalism in all matters whether substantial or modest, complex or simple. The foundation for her success is composed of hard work, perseverance and a highly developed understanding of the human factor. Cristina has taken her intelligence, education, experience and sensitivity and successfully applied them to problem solving for individuals and businesses in a variety of settings. As a result of her integrity and dedication, a large percentage of her practice has developed through interaction with and referrals from her many professional colleagues and loyal client base.

Cristina is a member of the American Bar Association, the New Jersey State Bar Association, and the Hudson & Morris County Bar Associations. She is a current member of the Supreme Court Committee on Model Civil Jury Charges, the District VC Ethics Committee – Essex County, the Hudson County Civil Practice Committee, the New Jersey Defense Association, and the Coalition of Insurance Professionals. In addition, Cristina serves as an Instructor/Lecturer for the Institute of Continuing Legal Education.